

The USDA National Hunger Hotline is 1-866-3-HUNGRY (1-866-348-6479). You can also call 1-877-8-HAMBRE (1-877-842-6273) in Spanish. The hotline is available Monday through Friday, 7 AM to 10 PM ET.

What The Hotline Does

- Helps people find food assistance
- Connects callers with emergency food providers, government assistance programs, and social services
- Helps people find meal sites, food banks, and other social services near their location
- Helps people find out if they qualify for nutrition assistance
- Helps people find a SNAP office close to them
- Other resources
- Call 211 to find agencies and community organizations that can help with finding food in an emergency
- Call the WhyHunger Hotline at 1(800) 5-HUNGRY to find food pantries, soup kitchens, summer meals sites, and more
- Visit <https://www.fns.usda.gov/summer/sunmeals> to find summer meals in your community